BIOGRAPHY

His passion for stones began at the age of ten when his grandfather gave him some, he had found in the desert of Libya and in particular a magnificent crystallized Galena. At the age of 15, as the youngest member of the "Groupe d'étude des minéraux et fossiles de Paris", Nicolas toured the French countryside with specialists to collect fossils and minerals.

In 2005, after a few years in Hong Kong and Paris, he began to live his dream in Florence by designing and creating an exceptional first table in hard stone marquetry (pietra dura). These materials (green Arno, red Languedoc...) come from old stocks jealously guarded by Florentine artisans. The Artist insists that each stone comes from the same quarry as those used in the 17th and 18th century.

This is how he created about fifteen table tops in pietra dura.

In January 2021, he set out on his way to Brazil to explore the amethyst mines he has dreamed of since childhood. He returned to France full of emotions and stones and undertook new creations whose essence is drawn from the deepest of his love for energies but also as an ode to the passion transmitted by his grandfather.

« Today I want to highlight beautiful stones in the jewellery I sculpt. I only use minerals that emit positive energies, so that they do good to their buyers: Amber but also Amethyst, Tiger's Eye, Malachite, Aventurine... and sometimes I magnify the entirety with gold.

For each jewel, I choose each stone individually, even the smallest, and I place it carefully in a precise and specific position. I also work on the association of metals and stones so that they resonate with each other and maximize the desired energy.

My greatest joy is to create an interior jewel that will perfectly suit your energy and that of the place where you live. »

Nicolas Jourdier

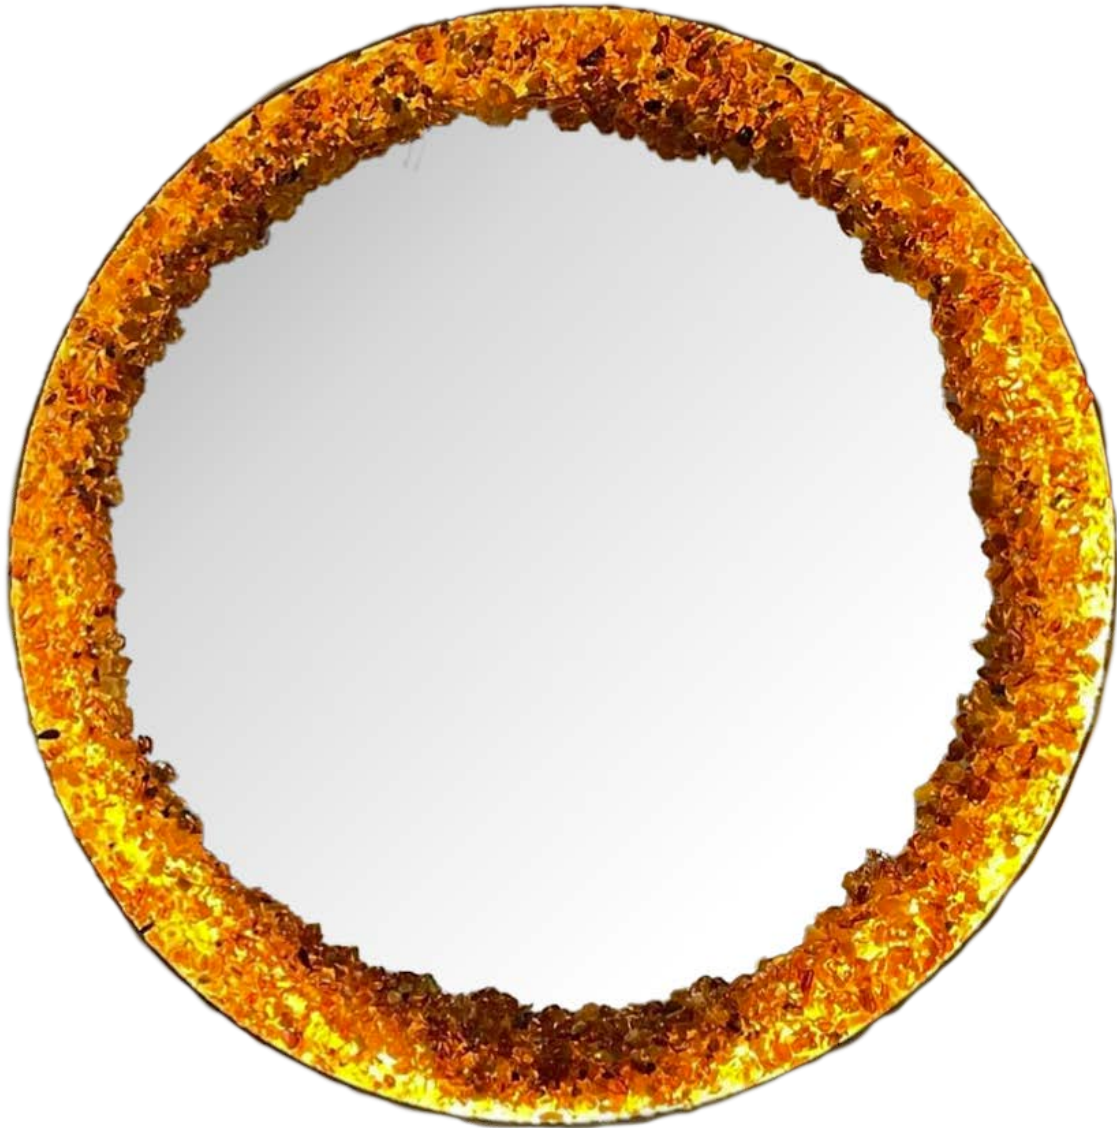

OUR TESTIMONY

"It goes without saying that, with a heart full of emotions and positive inspirations, Nicolas Jourdier will make his creations on demand with semi-precious stones infused with energies that will adapt to your desires and needs... It will then place a jewel in your interior both in space and in your heart.

You just have to let yourself be guided by the Artist and contemplate his Art, the rest will come to you as an evidence."
