BIOGRAPHY

Julien Lagueste grew up near the sea, in La Trinité-sur-mer, a French city on the Atlantic coast, and spent most of his summers in some beautiful french islands in Bretagne.

He is an interior architect and designer. After graduating in 2016, he moved to Nantes and opened up his workshop studio where he creates his first collection: « Souvenir des îles ». A series of different-sized tables in sculpted birch with blue resin tops.

The tabletop has five layers of resin mixed with pigments. When the liquid resin hardens, all the countless hues of the ocean come to life. For each tabletop, the pigments are mixed in a different way. The collection comprises four distinct series, including « Les Antilles » and « Belle-lle/Houat/Hoedic » comprising coffee and side tables. All pieces are handmade and come in a limited edition signed and numbered.

His creations are conceived as sculptures, simple and poetic, his tables take inspiration from the organic shapes of eroded stone, and the amazing reflections of a deep blue sea. His tables are a piece of furniture, a sculpture and a painting all in one.

Committed to eco-responsible and sustainable practices, Julien uses fine birch that is cut in a way to minimize waste, and make the pieces as light as possible.

His creations already travels worldwild, Julien Lagueste expose his work in accurate filds like « Révélations » at Grand Palais in Paris, « Private choise » and « Meet my project ».
